BOX NO. 1.

RAPIDAN, VIRGINIA

Issued September 1, 1942, and good until cancelled.

Prices quoted are CASH WITH ORDER and are for standard divisions of not less than three eyes and adequate roots. Prices on small divisions of one or more eyes will be quoted on application on some varieties.

Large orders will be specially priced if requested.

All sales, subject to stock on hand when the order is received. Roots guaranteed true to name.

Wholesale prices to bona fide members of the trade will be quoted on application when possible.

Prices will be quoted on any variety in commerce not listed.

Delivery is by parcel post only. Remit fifteen cents for the first root and two cents each for every additional root on orders less than five dollars. Over that, delivery free.

The color classification and ratings given are the latest authorized by The American Peony Society.

The following abbreviations are used: NR not rated; D dwarf (under thirty inches); E early; F fragrant; L late; M medium (30 to 40 in.) or mid-season; T tall (over 40 in.); V very.

The word "Japanese" is used to designate that type in which the stamens have been more or less transformed into stamino-odes or petaloids and which have no pollen bearing anthers. The term has no national significance. A few have substituted Victory, Oriental, Crested, or Imperial for this term all of which leads to endless confusion and is condemned by the American Peony Society as unauthorized. A single peony is one which has one or two rows of guard petals and a center of stamens and pollen bearing anthers.

All peonies listed here have been fully tested and are accredited members of the list of the World's Best Peonies. They are listed by colors and by types under each color. The ratings are given first, then the variety name, the originator and year of introduction, remarks, fragrance is noted sometimes when known, then height of plant, time of blooming and price each.

THE TESTED TWO-TWENTY (220)

The older varieties are listed here with some of the new ones. Only the best are to be found, and not all of them.

MIXED PEONIES

As I shall have to move several thousand roots this fall I will furnish postpaid mixed lots that will be chosen from several hundred different varieties including all colors and types. No guarantee will be given as to color or type sent. The roots will have at least two good eyes and adequate roots. They will be cut from older plants and will not be as trim and neat as those sent from younger plants, but they will give good results with ordinary care.

Ten for$1.50

Twenty-five for 3.00

Fifty to one hundred ten cents each

Two hundred and fifty or more six cents each

Orders should reach me by October 1, 1942, and shipments will be made as soon as possible after that date, at my convenience.

A SELECT SIXTY

This list of new varieties are either now or soon will be, numbered among the finest in the world. Some have never been offered before. Such as Dr. F. G. Brethour, Gertrude Gibson, Joseph Christie, Moonglow, Yosemite, Marilla Beauty, Laura Kelsey, Mrs. Rowland, Mary E. Nicholls are all of exceptional beauty and merit. All are doubles. Note reduced prices.

FIVE FOR THE FUTURE

In my own garden or on my recent trip I saw five very outstanding peonies. A. M. Brand, the one chosen by Mr. Brand, to bear his own name, a late white with beautiful pink tints in the center which will surely be one worthy to bear so beloved a name; Louise Lossing, named by Mrs. Evelyn Lossing of Norwich, Ontario, for her daughter, a very large white with remarkable depth of flower; King Midas, the winner of the American Home Achievement Medal at Minneapolis this year, originated by Mr. E. H. Lins of Cologne, Minnesota, probably the most perfect form of any red I have ever seen and two which as yet bear no names and one of them may be hard to find: Lins No. 2-101, a very brilliant dark pink with a rich growing color such as we have never before had in this class and the fifth a very large beautifully formed and exquisitely tinted blush double which some one brought to Mr. Christman's. It is hoped that it will be found. These are five that we have to look forward to in the future as promising something distinctive and fine.

THE AMERICAN PEONY SOCIETY

This society was formed for the purpose of promoting interest in the peony. It is especially for amateur growers and it needs your support in these trying times. Membership is three dollars annually, payable to The American Peony Society, care W. F. Christman, Secretary, Northbrook, Illinois. Usually four bulletins are issued each year free to the members.

THE PEONY MANUAL

A book of over three hundred pages giving detailed information on every phase of peony culture and varieties. Price $1.50.

A copy will be given free with any order of twenty-five dollars or more if requested.
